

Typhoid! + Milk Matters:* WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS Solution

1. The Dominion Elevator Co. Ltd.
2. (a) Ottawa.
(b) Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Telegraph.
3. Letters were handwritten then, but are usually written on a computer and printed now.
The language in letters was much more formal then.
4. Batten Limited.
5. Five "mothers".
6. Four "nurses".
7. Necessary for clean milk production.
8. White cotton discs.
9. For the company to use for advertising. Use of a new camera.
10. Not less than $2.00 and not more than $20.00 and costs.