

School Patrol Supervisors - Incentive Ideas

School patrol supervisors have submitted the following motivational ideas. If you have additional ideas that have been successful, please contact your patrol officer.

RECOGNITION

Patrol of the week

One patrol is selected for patrol of the week. Patrol's name is featured on banner in hallway. Patrol of each week is announced at monthly assembly.

Patrol of the month

Display board in hallway featuring patrol of the month. Patrol chosen by squad leader and supervisor. Badge presented to patrol of the month at school assembly. Patrol of the month takes friend for lunch.

Patrol Day

One day each year proclaimed as patrol day.

News Letter

Patrols recognized in monthly newsletter

Principal recognition

Every week the team that is coming off duty visits the principal who speaks with patrols and provides a treat.

INCENTIVES

Pizza Lunches

Pencils, pens, badges

Movie and popcorn at school

Hot chocolate on cold days

Hot Dog lunches

Muffin and juice breakfast

Slurpee day

Free time in computer room

Rice Crispies treat

Coupon for lunch at local restaurant

Extra Phys Ed periods

Baseball and BBQ

Swimming

Tobogganing and skating party

Take captains out for lunch

1 hr each month free time in gym

Patrol supervisor and vice principal make breakfast for entire team once a year. Sub sandwich buffet and dessert. Food provided by staff. Teachers serve patrols.

Weekly draws for prizes; i.e.: McDonald coupon. All patrols who have met their patrol obligations that week put their name into draw.

YEAR END

Imax Theatre and lunch

Grand Prix Amusements

Beach party Oasis Beach

Medallions for captains

Bowling and lunch

Fun Mountain/Wet & Wild

Discovery Zone

Certifications for grade 6 patrols