New Opportunities for Engagement

Question of the Week 1

Last summer, your answers to our Questions of the Week gave us guidance on where to focus on improving engagement and we want to hear from you again.

The Question of the Week is back. The next four newsletters will ask questions about your experiences to build on what we've heard so far.

Answer Question 1 now: Have you noticed any changes with regards to public involvement in City projects in the past several years?

Ongoing Opportunities for Engagement

Route 90 Improvements Study phase 2 engagement

Phase two of public engagement provides Winnipeggers with an opportunity to share input on key areas for the preliminary design, including: active transportation, traffic changes, transit, local improvements and access, accessibility and other design elements. Winnipeggers are invited to participate in a second online survey, available from June 13 to July 30, 2018.

Eastern Corridor potential route options

Thank you to everyone who took the time to attend an open house to provide feedback on potential route options for the Eastern Rapid Transit Corridor. The open houses ran from June 18 to June 21. If you were unable to attend, please visit the website and provide feedback on the potential route options using the online mapping tool. The deadline for input has been extended until July 13, 2018.

For more information, visit winnipeg.ca/easterncorridor.

Engagement Updates

Residential Infill Strategy Public Engagement Summary 2

Feedback from the public priorities workshops has been summarized and is available in Public Engagement Summary 2. The prioritized actions identified through these workshops will form the basis of the draft workplan, detailing short, medium, and long term actions at a forthcoming open house in fall 2018.
