

PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT NEWS

Thank you for engaging in 2018!

Thank you to all those who participated. Your willingness to contribute your time, energy, and knowledge gave 2018 projects the community context and varied perspectives needed for improved decision making.

2018 Highlights

- Our first ever engagement warming hut for the Osborne to Downtown Walk Bike Bridge project.
- Record breaking survey numbers (over 9,300!) for the Recreation and Parks Strategies.
- The Residential Infill Strategy brought different perspectives together to find common ground and develop an action plan to meet the needs of the community.
- Initiated a community traffic study in Lord Roberts to trial an approach to community traffic management that is collaborative and evidenced-based.

2018 Engagement Stats

- Over 40 projects asked for public input
- 30 surveys with over 17,500 respondents
- 70 in-person events with over 2,700 participants
- 25 biweekly public engagement newsletters

Have a safe and happy holiday season and we hope you participate again in 2019!
