

2023 COMMUNITY CONSULTATIONS

This report is a summary of how the Winnipeg Police Board (Board) received and collected community input in 2023. The Board considers the comments from community members to inform the strategic priorities for the Winnipeg Police Service to ensure the strategic plan reflects the needs and values of citizens.

The Board is open to public engagement activities to share the mandate of the Board and welcomes invitations to meet with community groups.

During 2023, the Board members reached out to organizations within their networks to gauge interest in meeting with the Board or receiving a presentation from the Board. As well, Board Staff invited organizations to share how they are working on developing community partnerships to the benefit of the City of Winnipeg.

In 2023, the Winnipeg Police Board received input from:

- Community groups that the Board reached out to directly
- Municipal and Provincial government representatives
- Community members who reached out to the Board directly
- Community members referred to the Board by City Councillors
- Citizens who provided written submissions to the Board
- Citizens who appeared as delegations at the Board's public meetings
- The Board's survey posted on its website
- Citizens who engaged with the Board Members at the WPB hosted Bike to Work Day Pit Stop

The Winnipeg Police Board attended meetings with the following:

- Police Accountability Coalition
- Raquel Dancho, Member of Parliament for Kildonan—St. Paul, Manitoba
- Retail Council of Canada

Delegations who provided their perspectives on Board reports that were published within the public meeting agendas and issues that were highly publicized in the media.

- Councillor Duncan, Charleswood-Tuxedo-Westwood Ward
- Councillor Wyatt, Transcona Ward
- Irene Bindi
- Jessica Peebles
- Daniel Friesen
- David Grant
- Natalie Smith
- Cole Coughlin
- Bronwyn Dobchuk-Land, Associate Professor, Department of Criminal Justice, U of W
- Charles Feaver, Chair, Bike Theft Prevention Committee, Bike Winnipeg
- Silas Koulack
- Curt Pankratz
- Dr. Jan DeFehr, Associate Professor, University of Winnipeg

The Winnipeg Police Board received written submissions from:

- David Grant

The Winnipeg Police Board provides opportunities for the public to contribute to the Board's strategic priorities for the Winnipeg Police Service (Service) and delegations are invited to attend the Board's public meetings.

If your organization is interested in receiving a presentation from the Winnipeg Police Board on its mandate, activities, or public safety in Winnipeg, please send your request via the Board webpage: www.winnipegpoliceboard.ca