PART E – SPECIFICATIONS

- Add: E2.2.1(f) This lock type can be adjusted to accept various coins and tokens and can be operated on either a coin retain or coin refund system. When this lock is set for “coin retain”, the coin is deposited to the cash box when the lock is locked. When the lock is set for “coin refund”, the coin is used as a deposit on the key while the locker is in use. Upon unlocking the locker, the coin is refunded to the user. The key remains captive until another coin of the correct denomination is inserted.
- Add: E2.2.1(g) All new stainless steel lockers to have the same master key system as existing lockers. The key number for the pass key and the money cash box are: Pass Key A0066, Money Cash Box B0227.
