Councillor Jason Schreyer, 2014 - City of Winnipeg

Jason Schreyer, 1967-2025

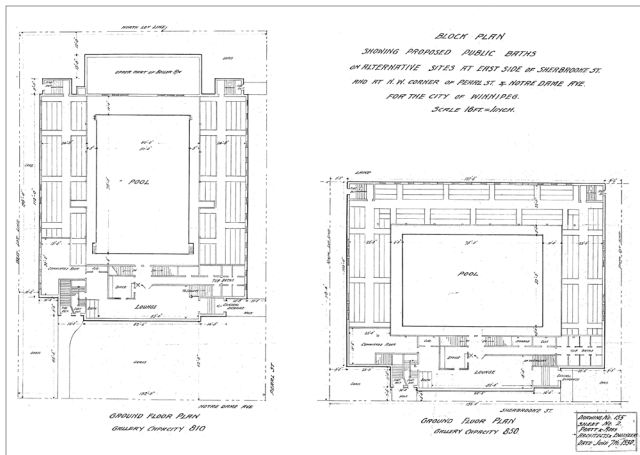

The Historical Buildings & Resources Committee was deeply saddened to learn that Councillor Jason Schreyer had passed away in April 2025. Councillor Schreyer had been the Chair of the Committee since 2020.

“First elected in 2014, Jason served the people of Elmwood–East Kildonan with passion and conviction. He was a strong and independent voice in the Council chamber, always focused on fighting for the residents of his community and keeping life affordable for Winnipeggers. Lately, he was especially focused on food security, working on a project to ensure everyone in his ward had access to basic necessities.

Jason came from a proud tradition of public service as the son of former Premier and Governor General Ed Schreyer and Lily Schreyer. He carried that legacy forward with a strong sense of purpose and a connection to the Elmwood–East Kildonan neighbourhood, where his family’s roots run deep.

Beyond politics, Jason brought joy and creativity to those around him. He had a love of music, often being the first to grab the mic at karaoke, delighting colleagues with performances at national conferences, sharing his talents in multiple languages at Folklorama, and even offering a song as a prayer at the start of Council meetings.”

Vision & mission

The Year Past is the Annual Report of the City of Winnipeg's Historical Buildings & Resources Committee. The 2025 report describes work completed from January 1 to December 31, 2025.

Our objective is to make the conservation of heritage a vital part of daily life. We want to:

- Remember our history
- Instill a sense of place, space, neighbourhood, and personal connection to the built environment
- Commit to the principle of sustainable development
- Provide enduring lessons in architecture, technology, and urban change

Committee mission:

- Maintain a commitment to excellence in research, evaluation, and designation of heritage resources
- Ensure the long-term conservation of heritage resources in Winnipeg through the implementation of new incentives, integrated planning, district/area designation, regulatory reforms, well-established design standards, and principled design review
- Be a catalyst for greater public awareness, education, and participation in heritage conservation
- Provide effective professional advice, information and administrative assistance on heritage plans, policies and programs to Winnipeg City Council through its Standing Policy Committee

Historical Buildings & Resources Committee

The Historical Buildings & Resources Committee (HBRC) advises the Public Service and Committees of Council about:

- Designation of resources and Heritage Conservation Districts
- Heritage permit application review
- Heritage grant application review

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee are outlined in the Historic Resources By-law and include:

- Researching, assessing, and evaluating heritage resources and districts
- Making recommendations about designation to City Council's Standing Policy Committee
- Providing design review to heritage staff on alterations, repairs, and additions to designated resources and districts
- Reviewing applications to the Gail Parvin Hammerquist Fund city-wide grant program
- Providing expert advice to City Council
- Working with heritage property owners, architects, engineers, contractors, realtors, heritage, government, business organizations, students, and the general public on education, outreach, and communications initiatives

Crescentwood-Enderton Park Heritage Conservation District Advisory Committee

The Crescentwood-Enderton Park Heritage Conservation District Plan has a Heritage Conservation District (HCD) Advisory Committee. The Committee:

- Provides advice to the Public Service on the Crescentwood-Enderton Park HCD and other districts
- Reviews applications for heritage permits
- Includes three members of the HBRC and two citizen members

Historical Buildings & Resources Committee members

Members are appointed to three-year terms. Current members:

- Jason Schreyer, Chairperson, Councillor (until April)
- Brian Mayes, Chairperson, Councillor (December)
- Shawn Dobson, Councillor
- Evan Duncan, Councillor (December)
- Sandra Hollender, Government of Canada, member
- Jeffrey Thorsteinson, Government of Canada, member
- Nicola Spasoff, Province of Manitoba, member
- Glen Gross, Manitoba Association of Architects member
- Gary Hawthorne, Manitoba Association of Architects member
- Rachelle Kirouac, Manitoba Association of Landscape Architects
- John Wells, Engineers Geoscientists Manitoba
- Joe Leven, citizen at large (until December)
- Mikal Sokolowski, citizen at large
- Jeff Gauley, citizen at large (December)

The Committee bid farewell to Mr. J. Leven, a member-at-large on the Committee since 2020. Mr. Leven was a valuable member, and his thoughtful input will be missed.

He was replaced on the committee by Mr. J. Gauley. Mr. Gauley is a retired provincial employee who had represented the Province on the Historical Buildings & Resources Committee from 2012 to 2024.

Heritage staff

In 2025, heritage conservation staff Rina Ricci and Murray Peterson:

- Led the designation process
- Completed design review for heritage permits
- Wrote historical reports
- Worked with HBRC and HCD Advisory Committees

Heritage lists

The Historical Resources By-law, has three types of historical resources. As of December 31, 2025:

1. List of Historical Resources (367 resources)

- Historical resources can be land or buildings, 40 years of age or older
- Protected from demolition
- A caveat is registered on title, alerting owners and potential buyers of heritage status
- Need a Heritage Permit for alterations
- Eligible for financial assistance and heritage grants
- Designation includes an owner-approved list of Character-Defining Elements (key elements that must be protected)
- Posted on City's website

2. Nominated List (no resources)

- Owners notified of nomination
- Evaluated within 12 months of nomination (owner can request an expedited hearing for a fee)
- Demolition not permitted; alterations are allowed through a Heritage Permit
- Not eligible for financial assistance
- Posted on City's website

EATON PLACE

Winnipeg's most exciting shopping showplace opens next Thursday!
Something old becomes something new, making a dramatic difference to our downtown area. The old Eaton Catalogue Building has been transformed into the most exciting shopping-restaurant complex in Winnipeg, Eaton Place. And it opens next Thursday.
It's a showplace
Eaton Place is a superb example of design and restoration techniques that combine the best of past and present. The solid old building on Graham Avenue has become Winnipeg's newest, most unusual complex. The latest lighting—never before used in Winnipeg—spills softly over banks of lush green plants. Warm earth-toned tile floors and natural colour walls help create a mood of relaxation, even as the shops and restaurants add an air of vitality. It's the beautiful downtown shopping centre Winnipeg has been waiting for.

It's a shopping place
Soon more than one hundred exciting shops and services will fill Eaton Place. You can enter from the street—or come in from Eaton's store on three levels—Lower, Main and Second. The Second Level Skywalk, lined with shops, takes you across Graham Avenue to the main building. Here you'll find more shops and a variety of restaurants (opening soon). Plus indoor parking for more than 300 cars. Eaton Place will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday, Thursday and Friday; 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday.

It's a meeting place
Eaton Place is more than just a place to shop. It's a place to meet friends for lunch. To relax over a cup of coffee. A place that invites you to browse. Or watch the world go by. It's a people place. For all seasons.
It's your place
Next Thursday, you'll be able to enjoy all the excitement of Eaton Place at the gala opening. There will be prizes and entertainment and lots more. So mark October 11 on your calendar, and be there!
All this... and downtown, too.

2025 highlights

The Public Service worked on several initiatives in 2025.

Exchange District National Historic Site (EDNHS) Buffer Zone Resources

The history of Winnipeg's downtown warehouse district was celebrated by its designation as a national historic site by the federal government in 1997.

The boundary of the national historic site leaves out structures and streetscapes important in interpreting the area's colourful history, the so-called Buffer Zone. The Public Service assessed all buildings within this buffer zone for heritage value and created a list of 24 undesigned buildings.

Adaptive re-use & heritage - land use incentives

Heritage staff were directed to report to the Standing Policy Committee on Property & Development on ways to promote the adaptive reuse of buildings. Adaptive reuse programs in Halifax, Vancouver, Calgary, and Montreal were studied.

These cities use a mix of incentives and regulations like:

- Flexible zoning rules in exchange for restoration
- Density transfers for conservation
- House conversions and additions beyond four units
- Rules that make it harder to demolish older character homes

Heritage staff met with the Climate Action and Resilience Committee. They discussed these tools and programs from other cities.

The Winnipeg Zoning By-law Rewrite that is underway could consider some of these tools and programs.

Gail Parvin-Hammerquist Fund City-Wide Program, 2025

The Public Service and the HBRC reviewed applications to the Gail Parvin-Hammerquist Fund City-Wide Program. This grant program supports heritage research, education, and restoration throughout Winnipeg.
