

Typical Household Backwater Valve Installation

Backwater valve
An approved backwater valve must be installed to protect plumbing that is below grade. A sump pit and pump should be installed along with the backwater valve.

This drawing is for illustrative purposes only.
For backwater valve installation requirements, see the Manitoba Plumbing Code.